

WRECKS SUFFRAGETTE OFFICES TO AVENGE FIRE WOMEN START

English Mob Sacks Society
Rooms While Incendiary
Fire Is at Its Height.

OXFORD, England, Nov. 21.—Vengeance was wreaked upon the Suffragettes who early this morning set fire to a great lumber yard on the banks of the Thames, for while the place was still burning the offices of a Suffragette society in this city were raided and wrecked. All the furniture and a large collection of Suffragette literature were thrown into the streets.

The damage done by the lumber yard fire amounted to tens of thousands of dollars. Confirmation of the suspicion of the police that the fire was the work of militant suffragettes was found on postcards left on the scene. On these was written "Send the bill to Chancellor Lloyd-George to-night," and "Democracy never has been a menace to property"—a quotation from one of Mr. Lloyd-George's speeches.

BURGLARS ARRESTED WHILE FAMILY SLEEPS

Plain Clothes Man Gets Two With the Goods In East Orange Residence.

Two men who said they were Charles Harris of No. 180 West Thirty-sixth street and John Delahanty of No. 77 Eighth avenue were caught early this morning packing up the silver in the residence of David B. Walton, who lives at No. 61 Mun Avenue, East Orange, N. J.

Mr. Walton, who is a paper manufacturer, with offices in New York, has one of the finest residences in East Orange. The burglars were discovered by a plain-clothes man who happened to be going by the house and saw a light burning in the dining room.

One of the men was occupied with the silver while the other was trying on various overcoats which he found in the hall. The family was not awakened until the burglars had been taken.

LITTLE PURGLAR BUCKS AND BUTTS THE LINEUP

Makes a Run and Cleanup as He Goes, but Finishes in Arms of a Policeman.

Returning to her home in the tenement at No. 7 Oak street today after a short absence, Mrs. Mary Ladine found a slim, wiry man about five feet tall busily engaged in a search. She grappled with the intruder, but found him strong and agile and he got away.

Mrs. Ladine screamed as he ran down the stairs and her cries were heard by Michael Murphy, the janitor, who was on the front steps. As Murphy started into the house he saw the little man approaching.

"Easy," said Murphy to himself, blocking the way.

The little man did not even hesitate. He just lowered his head, butted Murphy in the abdomen, knocking him half way across the street, and kept on going.

All this occurred next door to the Oak street police station. Half a dozen policemen took up the trail of the fugitive, who ran into New Chambers street and headed west. At Park Row the policemen were gaining. The little man dodged into a saloon, bowled over a dozen men and ran out into Park Row to find Policeman Ardena waiting for him.

The prisoner said he was Michael Smith of No. 1554 Jerome avenue. He was arraigned later in Centre Street Police Court.

WIFE DEMANDS $10,000.

But Justice Says She Must Itemize
All She Has Spent.

Henry F. Whalen, son of Michael F. Whalen, a wealthy contractor, is being sued by his wife Catherine to recover $10,000, the amount, she says, she has expended on her own maintenance and that of their three children since 1909, after Whalen deserted her.

Supreme Court Justice Cobanah yesterday directed Mrs. Whalen to supply an amended bill of particulars, itemizing as far as possible the sums she had paid out for clothing, food and other necessities.

M. J. Horan, attorney for Mrs. Whalen, said Whalen was about to come into a large inheritance from his father's estate and would be well able to pay the bill.

Shellfishness.
(From the Chicago Tribune.)
The oyster was bewailing its hard lot. "I don't mind being 'pickled' once in awhile," said the oyster, "for even being 'deviled' occasionally, but I'm tired of death of being called 'the luscious bivalve!'"

WOMAN STRANGELY MISSING.

Miss Grace La Gendre, employed as a bookkeeper at the Hotel Gregorian, in West Thirty-fifth street, has been missing since Thursday, Nov. 14, and from were reported yesterday that she had either committed suicide or met with foul play.

At the hotel it was said she left there on the day of her disappearance saying she was going home. At her home, No. 136 Clinton street, Brooklyn, where she lived with Miss L. M. Jensen, a school teacher, nothing has been seen of her since that morning when she started for work.

Do You Pay for It Afterward?

If You Do, Just Carry a Little Stuart's
Dyspepsia Tablet in Your Vest
Pocket and a Big Meal Will Be Easily Laid Away.

Get away from the foreboding that every time you enjoy yourself heartily and eat a full meal, that you will pay for it afterward. There is no reason in your not enjoying every meal to the utmost. And you can do so without danger from a protesting stomach if you take the precaution always to have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with you. Then if you overeat, or eat something that disagrees with you, as the most careful person will sometimes, one or two of these tablets will restore normal conditions in your stomach in a very few minutes.

"I Am Glad to Enjoy This Meal for I Have a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet in My Vest Pocket."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are nothing more than a concentrated form of the natural secretions which the stomach employs in digesting food. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets merely step in when the stomach is too tired or too sluggish to perform its functions properly and supply sufficient quantity of these digestive ferments to digest completely all food, under either acid or alkaline conditions, in the stomach.

It has long been known that the various digestive ferments could be produced artificially in the laboratory as in the stomach, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the first actual outside of certain hospitals to utilize these discoveries for the benefit of sufferers from indigestion and kindred complaints.

The perfect freedom to eat what you please and as much as you please, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give, has won it thousands of friends who make it a constant vest pocket companion. Join today the vast army of people who have declared their independence of stomach worries. You can get a 500 box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets from any drug-gist.
